Spectrum: Mythos, An Evening of New Works
to Support New Fundraising Initiative for The Georgia Ballet, Cobb County's Professional Non-Profit Ballet Company

MARIETTA, GEORGIA - Join The Georgia Ballet for an incredible evening of extraordinary performances that showcase the professional company in contemporary and inventive new choreography! Spectrum: Mythos, An Evening of New Works will be presented Friday, February 5th and Saturday, February 6th at 7 p.m., and takes place at The Georgia Ballet studios in Marietta.

The evenings include a one hour dance showcase performance, live music, food and drink, and a silent auction. Spectrum: Mythos, An Evening of New Works will support a new Georgia Ballet fundraiser initiative called "Keep Us Dancing" to support The Georgia Ballet professional dancers. The initiative's goal includes raising money to support the activities, compensation and pointe shoe fund for the talented company dancers. Join hands with The Georgia Ballet and the Cobb community to keep our beautiful dancers "on their toes"!

The performance is a true arts collaboration and includes new pieces from choreographers all over the metro area. The evening includes showcase performances from choreographer Min Kim, the Assistant Professor of Dance at Kennesaw State University, Joanna Brooks of Brooks and Company Dance in Atlanta, Lynne Brague, esteemed faculty member at The Georgia Ballet, and The Georgia Ballet's own resident choreographer Janusz Mazon. The evening's works round out with pieces by local choreographers and The Georgia Ballet professional company members, as well as a performance by Kennesaw State University Dance Department students.

Proceeds from ticket sales and the silent auction benefit The Georgia Ballet, a non-profit professional arts organization in Cobb County. The silent auction will be held both evenings. Tickets are $15 each in advance or $17 at the door. Tickets can be purchased online for no extra fee at www.georgiaballet.org or by calling 770-528-0881. Spectrum: Mythos, An Evening of New Works will be held at The Georgia Ballet studios at 1255 Field Parkway, Marietta, GA. For more information please call 770-528-0881.

The Georgia Ballet, comprised of a professional dance company and a dance school, was founded in 1960. The Georgia Ballet's mission is to promote excellence in ballet performance and training, foster an increased public awareness and appreciation for dance, and provide dedicated and talented dancers with the opportunity for advanced level training and professional performance venues.
