Silent Auction Instructions

Your bidder number is on the front of your silent auction catalog. You will use this number when bidding on items in the silent auction. Please note the starting bid and minimum incremental bids for each item. They are listed on the bid sheet itself and on each item's display sheet.

The silent auction begins at 7:00 and continues until the performance begins. It will resume after the performance. Table hostesses are available to answer any questions about the items.

The silent auction will close by sections. Section 3 (items 301-323) will close first. Section 2 (Items 201-221) closes second and, finally, Section 1 (Items 101-116). Closings will be in 10 minute increments starting at approximately 9:30.

You may proceed to check-out once every your section has closed. If you have bids on items in multiple sections, please wait until all sections in which you have bids have closed. We will have your silent auction total at check-out. You may pay with credit card (VISA or Mastercard), by check (payable to The Georgia Ballet) or by cash. Any gift certificates you have won will be given to you at check-out. Please do not remove any items from the tables until after you have checked-out. At that time, you can present your paid receipt to the table hostess for your item.

Decorated Pointe Shoes: Please notice the decorated pointe shoes on display. These have been decorated by our students as part of a Decorated Pointe Shoe Contest. You are invited to purchase any of the shoes for $15 each. You may pay for the shoe you have chosen from the pointe shoe hostess at any time. However, we do ask that you wait until after the performance to collect your shoe from the pointe shoe hostess.

*Live Auction: This year we will be auctioning off two items (Items 108 and 109) in a live auction immediately following the performance. Even if you do not plan to participate, please stay in your seat after the performance to watch the excitement.

Questions? Ask a friendly Georgia Ballet staff member or volunteer. We're wearing nametags!

Let the bidding begin!
