The Georgia Ballet Policies

1. Upon arriving, all students must check in with the receptionist and pay for class.
2. In general, we ask that students refrain from eating or drinking in The Georgia Ballet building. Water is the only beverage allowed in The Georgia Ballet. No gum-chewing is allowed in the studios.
3. The Georgia Ballet is not responsible for items left in the studios or the building.
4. Payments for tuition and school related fees can be made by cash or check. There will be a returned check fee of $20.00 for insufficient funds. For your convenience, The Georgia Ballet School accepts Visa and MasterCard credit and debit cards for class card purchases and recital fees.

I, the undersigned, understand the policies of The Georgia Ballet and agree to abide by these in full. I recognize the risks of accident or injuries associated with any program of dance and acknowledge that I am participating upon the express understanding that I am willing and able to accept full responsibility for my own safety and welfare. I certify that I am in good health and capable of participating in all school activities and classes. I agree that The Georgia Ballet, Inc., its staff and Board of Trustees shall not be liable in any way for any injuries sustained or loss of property during attendance at the school or any of its related functions.
